I. Questions & Answers

Q1. Will a double sided printed page count as 1 page or 2 pages?

A1. A double sided printed page will count as 1 page page.

Q2. On page 4, Item 2, second bullet, next to last sentence – An “actual cost and project length” is asked to be included in the reference list. Should this length of project include mileage of road projects or duration of road projects? My guess would be mileage of roadway but wanted to confirm.

A2. On page 4, Item 2, second bullet- “An actual cost and project length” is referring to the mileage of road projects that you are referencing. The next bullet then refers to the schedule/ length of the project.
